

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

02.27
Snyder's

INTRODUCTIONS

LIBRARY RECEIVED

★ OCT 7 1957 ★

U. S. Department of Agriculture

American Iris Society
Registrations

QUALITY IRIS

Iowa

NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY - EIGHT
LIST

ALPINE SUNSET

A charming bright variegata.

The two colored bloom, a bright "Tansy" yellow and the glow of setting sun rays with finishing edging of the yellow.

Of fine growing habits, low branching stalk.

$2.00

ALZA HOLA

A spanish salute calling attention.

The colors of this iris may be visualized at a time when sun, unveiled sky and light cloud in relative view.

That ivory cloud with the blue of the sky filtering through and with the sun's delicate tracing. $2.50

BEAUTIFUL GALATEA

A self of lovely "Bridal Rose" admiration.

This large round form iris flower of finished texture. Well balanced segments of the floral, rich orange beard, branching 36" sturdy stalk. $3.00

BLUSHING YOUTH

A petunia Pink self.

The blooms are large iris styled on the low branching 38" stalk, enduring substance, smooth texture, of pleasing value in the landscaping. $1.25

BRIGHT MELODY

Permanent Rate 87.

An attractive break in self color luscious ripe Concord grapes sheen and chesnut color haft.

That desired closed shape at the apex and a completed well balanced bloom.

Enduring substance, unusual deep texture, stalk branching at center, the predominant color shading off to a rich brown with the beard. $5.00

CAPTAIN ROYAL

An exquisite finished "Mosaic Blue" self.

Must be seen to realize such choice coloring beauty, fine shaped, enduring substance, desirable texture, strong stalk, of Elmohr distinction in shape of bloom. $6.00

DECORATOR

A unique red self done in "Pipe Stone" "Peace Pipe" tones. The wide branches claim one-half of the 40" sturdy stalk, suitable for adding height to spacious settings and the shadings are of the neutral harmony with other shades and blends. $2.25

DREAMLAND

A red self, classified by "Dictionary colors" as Deep Hollyhock.

One and only uniform color and texture throughout the blooms.

Distinctive waving edge of the modified flar rounded petals and fully appreciated in reality, bright prominent lemon color beard for charm, weather enduring quality, no staining nor fading during the life of blooms. The representative stalks are strong, well branching, of 38" in height, supporting three open blooms at once, equally spaced and independent positions. The foliage is of sufficient height and desirable quality encircling the stalks for a picturesque setting. $10.00

Last season gave a large planting of "Dreamland" and these are all from the original introduction.

SPECIAL—Every 10th order received during April 15 to June 15, 1948 for Iris "Dreamland" will be FREE to the Customer and money refunded.

ELIGIBLE

The new diversion of red self.

These large tubular shaped blooms are of the admired autumn "Sumac Red", enriched texture overcast with soft walnut brown finish. Heavy beard of the texture shading, enduring quality substance. Our ultimate goal to date is offered at this introductory price. $20.00

HALCYON DAYS

A signal red self.

This iris is near to the medium tone Iowa wild rose, on the large supporting 40" stalk. The shape of the blooms are interesting with an inflated appearance. Fragrant. $2.25

IOWA GLORY

A rich maroon self with intense heavy texture, rich prominent orange beard, a good propagator. $1.00

NISHNABOTNA

A large reddish violet iris, one that has ventured the years and found reliable. $.50

SIOUX CITY

An even self.

Imitation of the "Heliotrope" color in its varied shades when in the different light. A very broad bloom with cupped standards and flar falls. A striking different type of iris bloom. Very fragrant as cut flowers. $.50

SIOUX CITY SUE

A striking bicolor.

The flower is wide and full petaled. The color is of deep rich tapestry with the intense blue blaze in the center of the falls. It is really an appropriate choice Iris to be named this famous distinction. $8.00

STELLA VIOLA

A rich vivid violet self.

The beauty of this iris is a clear redder, richer, El Captain, strong ridged 38" branching stalk with foilage in keeping to complete a choice iris. $4.00

W. S. Snyder

3822 Fourth Avenue Sioux City 20, Iowa